It's amazing how many FREE things these days are actually paid for by some catch phrases. GOT YOU SUCKER!!! That's the motto of course, all this freedom and free time has shackled your mind to be free of the remembrance of the Almighty. Free cellphone, talk time makes you unmindful of your great creator. You see how FREE sets you far from freedom of the fire. In fact all the FREE time and items are infact taking up your precious time without you realizing it. You now don't have FREE time for salaah or tilawaah or freedom to follow the sunnah which is infact gives you FREE reward in abundance and gives you freedom from the fire and FREE entry into Jannat. INSHA-ALLAH. So be aware next time you think its FREE ask your self is it really FREE!!!

Yes FREE of charge is what Allah (SWT) gave us. FREE air to breathe, FREE from sickness, FREE faculties of seeing, hearing, talking, touching, smelling, thinking, FREE unlimited countless bounties that very few of us are even aware of, let alone thankful for. We in turn use these FREE bounties unmindfully and wasting them away in forbidden indulgence. Ask yourself when last did I FREE my tongue of backbiting, FREE my hearing from listening to unlawful talk, and FREE my senses to gain the true love of my creator. To recognize these bounties that have been taken for granted for so long. When last did I FREE some time for salaah, FREE some time for tilawaah, FREE some time for zikr, FREE some time for love of my Nabi (SAW) and his illustrious companions, FREE some time for true love of my creator and when last did I FREE some time for taubah. Yes my friend FREE I am to choose the correct way. But instead I choose the FREE, CAREFREE and FEAR-FREE life following shaitaan and his schemes. I am caught up in a "FREE WORLD" and feel FREE to do what and when I want. Remember some day you will have to stand and answer as to what you did with all these FREE bounties of time (day, night, rest etc.). So next time you see the FREE sign/advert think before you act.

I beg you please feel FREE, really feel FREE to ask forgiveness from those you have wronged firstly your parents, family, your children, neighbours, most important make a firm resolution to speak freely to your loving, giving, Allah (SWT) who is FREE, yes FREE from all your misunderstanding of this great Allah.
